Fellowship Baptist Church of Longview will be hosting a marriage building day for the community on Saturday, Oct 23 from 10 AM - 3:30 PM for couples of all ages. The sessions will be led by the pastor, Galen Herrington, and his wife, Angie, who have been teaching marriage skills together for 8 years in churches and in the US Army while Galen served as a Chaplain.

This Saturday of fellowship and fun will focus on growing in your marriage through conflict resolution skills, parenting together and understanding each other's personality differences.

The cost will be $10 per family to cover lunch for both the parents and children. Bodacious BBQ will be served for lunch and free child care will be provided in our children's rooms and in the nursery.

See the itinerary on the other side and fill out the registration form. Please be sure to include the ages of your children so we will know how many children in each age group we will have so we can provide age-appropriate activities throughout the day.

If the $10 fee is not in your family's budget, please do not let this prevent you and your family from joining us. Just send in your registration form and we will take care of the fee for you.

This will be a time of fun and fellowship as we grow together in our marriages and in new friendships.
